

Feeding our school children One backpack at a time!

Backpack Blessings

WHAT

Backpack Blessings bridges the gap each weekend for local school children who are food insecure by delivering backpacks of food every Friday during the school year.

WHY

No child should ever go hungry, for any reason. Each of us can make a difference in a child's life by giving a little. Working together, our efforts, are amplified. Join us today!

HOW

You can help by donating online or purchasing specific food items. The food list and drop off locations are listed on the back of this flyer. Also share the word about BPB!
